

Four Corners Football Club (FCFC) Waiver Form

Waiver of Liability: By signing this waiver, or by playing in the league (even without signing the waiver, in which case the agreement is implicit), I acknowledge that soccer is a contact sport; serious injuries, the spread of viruses (known and unknown), and even death may occur. Understanding these inherent risks and dangers, I hold the Four Corners Football Club, LLC (FCFC) and its designated agents harmless from all claims for injuries, damage, or loss resulting from participation, even if arising from negligence. I agree not to make a claim against, sue, attach the property of, or prosecute FCFC or its agents, sponsors, or employees for damages for death, personal injury, or property damage which I may sustain as a result of my participation. If I become aware of any hazardous situation, then I will remove myself and inform the referee. This release discharges in advance FCFC and its agents, sponsors, and employees from and against any and all liability, including for negligent actions, arising from or connected with participation in the activity. I attest that I am at least 16 years old, am fit enough to play soccer, have my own medical insurance, and have no known medical conditions to contraindicate strenuous physical activity. I understand and agree that I am solely responsible for the mechanical and/or operating condition of any and all sporting equipment I use, and I agree to continuously inspect and maintain that equipment (including the playing field itself), even if obtained from FCFC. I am aware that this agreement is a release of liability and a contract between myself and FCFC, LLC. I sign this of my own free will, having read it carefully.

Code of Conduct: All players, spectators, and others associated with the Four Corners Football Club agree to keep the playing and spectator areas free from drugs, alcohol, tobacco, violence, and foul language. Slide tackling is not allowed, and may result in a yellow or even a red card. Players are not allowed to physically touch or threaten the referees. If a player steps onto the field to play with the wrong color shirt or jersey, or without shin guards, then this player will receive a yellow card. Players with yellow cards must sit out for ten minutes, but can be replaced. Two yellow cards equals a red card, which means that the player cannot play for the rest of the game, and cannot be replaced, and must also miss the next scheduled game. Nor can this player play for other teams in the league while serving this suspension. If a player is suspected of having a concussion, or symptoms suggesting a concussion, then this player may not play until cleared by a licensed physician. All players are urged to read the CDC web site for important information regarding concussions. Some teams may have team policies above and beyond the league policies, such as having to reply to game invites within a certain time frame. If, on this basis, the team captain informs the league that this player cannot play, then the league respects the team captain as the designated representative of the team, and will therefore abide by what the captain says.

Refunds: If a player has paid but then there is no room on the team for him or her (which is highly unlikely), then this player will receive a full refund. If there are issues with the field that cancel the entire season, then all players will receive full refunds (also unlikely). However, no refunds, complete or partial, will be possible when it is the player who changes plans and cannot play, even if this is due to injury, illness, or relocation. There is also no refund for players who cannot play because of red cards or concussions or other injuries or who cannot play because they have violated team and/or league policies. For example, players joining the league as individuals who are assigned to teams by the league must follow the policy of responding in a timely manner to all game invites. Failure to do so will get this player stricken from the invite list for violation of team policy, and there will be no refund issued.
